The average American spends 70 hours per year, the equivalent of nearly two full work weeks, on lawn and garden care. For some, lawn care is an onerous task, grudgingly accomplished, and for others it is a source of personal pride and accomplishment. Over the past four decades, author John B. Marek has variously and intermittently fallen into both camps. In Ben and the Art of Lawnmower Maintenance, he weaves humorous personal anecdotes with fascinating historical facts, and recounts his father's homespun wisdom alongside insight gained from his own suburban homesteading experiences.

Jury Instructions on Products Liability, Fourth Edition covers the issues likely to arise in a trial. Judges have given them, juries have followed them, and appeals courts have tested them. Each instruction cites supporting case law, including relevant law review articles and annotations to American Law Reports, to save time and effort in finding support for your request. Jury Instructions on Products Liability explains the issues for the layman, translating complex legal issues into everyday language. Tailor each instruction to fit the unique details of your case and fine-tune the issues to assert more control over jury deliberations. Jury Instructions on Products Liability includes hundreds of instructions on these and other topics: • Duty to warn • Strict products liability

• Unavoidably unsafe products • Warranty liability and misrepresentation • Design defect liability • Risk-utility doctrines • Testing and inspection • Industry standards and customs • Comparative negligence • Assumption of risk • Causation The Fourth Edition also addresses the New Restatement of Torts: Products Liability.
